The Armor

Verse 1

A D
May my armor be the belt of your truth
A D
That holds me to you in the battles to come
A D
May my armor be your righteousness as
A D
A breastplate put on by your mercy oh God
A D
May my armor be the shoes for my feet
A D
The readiness of your Gospel of peace

Chorus

A D A D
That I may be found to stand and not turn back
A D A D |D
That I may be found to stand until the end

Verse 2

May my armor be the shield of your faith

For the enemy comes with his arrows aflame

May my armor be the helmet of Grace
On my head it will rest your salvation my God

May my armor be the word that is drawn
The sword of the Spirit piercing the dark

Verse 3

May my armies be the prayers of the saints Poured out in faith that rise to your throne

May my armies be the preachers who teach
The truth of your Word give them boldness to speak

May my armies be the fellowship of
The ones who hold fast when trials have come

Chorus 2

Let us be a church that stands and will not turn back

Let us be a church that stands until the end

Interlude: | \C# \A \G# \A |D | \C# \A \G# \A |D

Verse 4

May my armies be the great crowd of saints Lining the way as we run in this race

May my armies be the angels of light
That stand by our side and assist in the fight

May my armies be the songs of the saved
That roar like a wave to break down the walls
